

Time Limitation on Voucher

The Sec 8 housing voucher that is issued to you is “Use it or lose it” You must find a rental within a certain amount of time (usually 60 days) or it expires and becomes worthless. Dealing with a government housing specialist on our site helps you find a rental in a timely fashion and protects your sec 8 benefits from expiring.

Note: If you make a concerted effort to find housing, most PHA offices will grant you an extension of time to find suitable housing accommodations. Additionally, if you cannot find suitable housing in your area, you can port into another area.
