

Maximum Income Allowed under Section 8

The maximum income allowed for acceptance into the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program is determined by your household size and the cost of living in your chosen area. These income limits vary from county to county and are set annually by HUD using American Community Survey data. To find out the maximum income allowed by federal government in any county of United States you can go to:

HUD MAX INCOME